Jenny Stillo Wins the American Translators Association's 2013-2014 School Outreach Contest

ALEXANDRIA, VA—Jenny Stillo won the American Translators Association's 2013-2014 School Outreach Contest for a photo taken during her visit to an advanced placement Spanish class at Crested Butte Community School in Crested Butte, Colorado. Stillo, an ATA member, is a freelance translator and interpreter based in Crested Butte.

The ATA School Outreach Contest is part of the ATA School Outreach Program. The Program introduces students to the translation and interpreting profession. For more information on the ATA School Outreach Program, please see http://www.atanet.org/ata_school/index.php.

Founded in 1959, the American Translators Association's primary goals include fostering and supporting the professional development of translators and interpreters and promoting the translation and interpreting professions. ATA, based in Alexandria, Virginia, has nearly 11,000 members in over 95 countries. For more information on ATA, please visit www.atanet.org.
